Project Title HCM Outreach Initiative

Project Description

Harrisonburg Children's Museum (HCM) seeks to provide benefits to low and moderate income (LMI) persons within the City. HCM's application requests funding to enable the museum to provide educational opportunities for identified LMI groups, including migrant farm workers, at-risk preschool classes, LMI families as identified by City elementary school administration, and youth service organizations. Benefits will include free admissions, free memberships, and free or subsidized educational classes. HCM requested $7,780.
